

imperfettolab

Nido

Design Imperfettolab
2008

A seat of enfolding elegance. An armchair that welcomes and clasps like a precious shell in which to take shelter. A nest, whose different finishes can give iridescent and metallic reflections, silky matt black and white or the naked beauty of the raw material. Perfect in a living room, as well as in any corner where you want to recreate an intimate and private space, where you can abandon yourself to the most relaxing break.

N01

cm 130x97xh66

black/white
chrome/iridescent
gold/copper/resin

armchair

